This Consent Judgment Entry is submitted to the Court by the parties based on their agreement regarding modifications to an existing order issued by this Court. By signing this Consent Judgment Entry, each party acknowledges that (1) he or she has had the opportunity to speak with an attorney but has chosen not to do so, (2) he or she is entitled to a hearing on any modifications related to this case but does not want a hearing, (3) he or she is signing this Consent Judgment Entry voluntarily and no one has forced him or her to sign this or agree to the terms, and (4) he or she has had enough time to consider the agreement and believes that it is in the child or children's best interests. The parties understand that this proposed Consent Judgment

Entry is subject to the approval of the Court and will be considered a joint motion to modify the parental allocation for minor children if not fully approved by the Court at the time of submission.

Any child support arrearages or overpayments accrued through prior court orders or prior administrative orders are preserved.
